Guide to accessible voting in the November 29 elections

EuropaPress | 28/11/2026 | 12:00

The Ministry of the Interior has implemented various measures to ensure that people with disabilities can participate in the general elections this Sunday, November 29, so that they can exercise their right to vote "actively, consciously, freely and voluntarily," in accordance with the General Electoral Law and the Royal Decrees governing the accessible voting procedure.

The Ministry of the Interior has implemented various measures to ensure that people with disabilities can participate in the general elections this Sunday, November 29, so that they can exercise their right to vote "actively, consciously, freely and voluntarily," in accordance with the General Electoral Law and the Royal Decrees governing the accessible voting procedure.

Autor:
Europa Press

https://gironanoticies.com/en/guide-to-accessible-voting-in-the-november-29-elections/